

There's a Reason More and More Institutions Are Turning to FNC to Raise Deposits

FNC Brokered CD Underwriting Volume

Over 1500 institutions of all sizes have worked with FNC to discover how efficiently brokered CDs can help them increase deposits, minimize their administrative work and maximize results without compromising local deposit structures.

We want to thank all the institutions that have chosen FNC as a funding source. If you have not yet worked with FNC, we invite you to contact us to learn about our easy, service-oriented process. FNC funding professionals partner with clients to guide them through the process and help them understand how to most effectively benefit from brokered CDs and the opportunities they offer.

Choosing FNC could make a significant difference in the efficiency and success of your funding process. Our booklet "Growth Through Brokered Deposits" explains how FNC can help you meet your funding needs. Contact us to receive your complimentary copy.
